ZONE CHAIRMAN GWEN'S MESSAGE

I wish each of you a Happy New Year! Hopefully, everyone you know enjoyed the Celebration, but stayed safe and sane. Can you believe it, nearly half of the Lions year 2009-2010 is gone. Please continue the work that each of you do in your communities. I am very proud of all of you and also proud of all that you do.

Here are some important dates to remember:

F3 Zone Meeting is scheduled in Prescott on January 21, 2010 at 7:00 PM. Special guests are confirmed with PDG Larry Carley presenting on C A R E, and PDG Melba Fujiura's program will be on L C I F. Both of these presenters will give a brief overview of their Committee's program, then be available to answer any questions. Presidents, please be sure to invite your entire Board of Directors and membership to this meeting and program. Also be prepared to report briefly on your clubs plans for new member recruitment and retention. I promise to again have a goodie there for all to enjoy. Even healthy snacks for those of you with 2010 resolutions for healthy eating.

Please consider this your personal invitation. Please RSVP to me with a number expected from your club, you can receive credit for a visitation if you have two or more members attend.

A LEMPRR meeting is being hosted by Waitsburg Club on January 10, 2010. Noon-3 PM. Lunch available. Please RSVP to Gwen @ 337-9177 or by email to waltandgwen@charter.net. All Lions members are welcome to attend these meetings.

In January, I plan to visit the Dayton Lions on January 6th, the College Place Lions on January 13th, the East gate Lions on January 20th. And the Down Town Lions on January 25th, with Touchet-Gardena on January 27th. I also have January 12th on my calendar for a visit with the WW Valley Lioness. I have not received our District Governor's visitation schedule yet, but I may be busier that I thought.

Membership Contests are going hot and heavy right now. Get involved and "Each One Reach One", and also be eligible to be winners in the M&M Sponsor Reward Program.

Please consider planning for the upcoming Spring Conference on March 19th & 20th, in Kennewick. There is additional information available in this newsletter regarding the details of the Conference. It is so close to all of us, I would appreciate having as many clubs as possible attend and join in the fun. You can easily make a day of it, and yet return home that evening.

Club Presidents, Secretaries and Treasurers: Be watching for your International and MD dues billings, prompt payment will be greatly appreciated.

For further planning purposes, please be sure to mark May 13-15th for the Multiple District 19 Annual Convention. It is being held in Olympia at the Red Lion Hotel. The theme of the conference is "Teamwork". The conference includes an opportunity to enjoy the 75th Charter Anniversary of the Olympia Club. See further details also in this newsletter.

Some of our Zone members have sponsored new members and are in the M&M Reward Program. They are: Owen Agenbroad (2), Glynn Davis, Loretta Melanson, Eula Sinnden (2), and Donald Zimmerman. Congratulations, Lions! We wish you luck! Everyone keep it up! You guys are great! Invite your friends to become a part of Lions Int'l and give back to your community.

Again, thank you for all that you do in your communities! You are awesome Lions and do so much to help others! I am proud of you 'all.

Gwen Gobel, Zone Chair F3

SPRING CONFERENCE: PZC Sam Clayton, Chairman

Spring Conference – March 19 – 20, 2010, Red Lion Columbia Center, Kennewick, WA

The Spring Conference is coming up faster than you might think. I have worked with the Red Lion to lower the room rates from $95.00 per night to $89.00 per night for single or double occupancy. I know it doesn't should like much of a rate discount, but every little bit helps.

District Governor Kay has picked a great Fun Night theme – Pirates of the Columbia. We will have some games to play and a mini casino set up. I am planning to have the Academy of Children's Theater do a Pirate themed act during the early evening, so please get busy coming up with your pirate costume and don't forget your eye-patch!

During the Fun Night we are going to have the Contest & Awards Competition for Tall Tails 3-Minute & 5-Minute speeches, along with Barber Shop Quartets or Singing Competition. Best Dressed Costume and Worst Dressed Costume. Let's all plan to attend.

We are working on some great panels and seminars for Saturday, also. I should have a complete list in time for the January Newsletter. We are changing things around trying to make the Conference worth attending. I hope I can accomplish this.

Back to the Hotel; for those needing accommodations on the Ground Floor, you will need to make your reservation ASAP. There are only 10-12 rooms with no stairs to climb. You need to make your reservation for those rooms with me, not the Hotel, PLEASE!! You can call me (Sam Clayton) at (509) 531-6835 or e-mail sjclayton@charter.net and I will make your reservation with the Hotel. If you are e-mailing, make sure to provide me a contact phone number, the number of nights and the number of people in the room.

Presidents and Secretaries: Let your Club Members know about the conference. Bring it up at your January meetings and plan to attend. District Governor Kay and Conference Chairman Sam have put together some great prizes for those in attendance. So, let's get on our hydroplanes and speed off to the Tri-Cities for fun and excitement.

CONTEST AND AWARDS: PDG Bill Shepherd, Chairman
